

L'œuf Poché
tennis & activewear for women

What does L'Oeuf Poché mean?

L'Oeuf Poché means The Poached Egg in French. L'Oeuf is said to be the origin of the term "love" in tennis because eggs resemble a zero. Poach is also a tennis term, which is used to describe a play in doubles where the player at the net crosses the court to volley a shot intended for his/her partner. High risk, high reward!

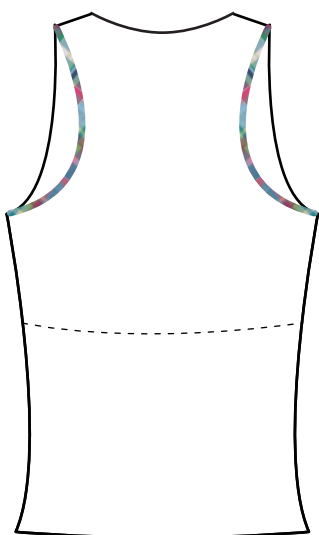

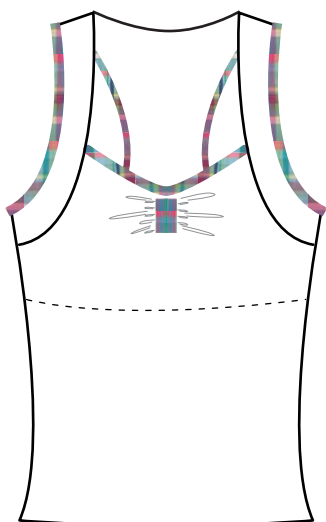

About the Designer / Collection:

Ami started her career in accounting, a world far away from fashion! However, she had always been fascinated by the fashion industry. She started to pursue a Certificate in Fashion Design at the Otis School of Art and Design in Los Angeles at night and on weekends while working during the day. She is entering her second season, and she is excited to introduce the new collection!

Our philosophy is to offer fashion forward tennis and activewear to the modern woman. Our collection embodies classic lines and shapes with fashion flair in details. We also pride ourselves in the thought and care we put into the production of each garment. Each piece is made in the U.S. with much care under ethical working conditions.

A woman with blonde hair in a ponytail, wearing dark sunglasses and a white sleeveless top, is walking outdoors. She is carrying a large tote bag with horizontal navy blue and white stripes and a red trim. The bag has two white rope handles with red tassels. She is also carrying a black tennis racket with white stripes and the word "HEAD" visible on the back. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with greenery and a building.
