L'œuf Poché

2014 Collection

About the Brand:

L'Oeuf Poché's philosophy is to offer fashion forward tennis and activewear to the modern woman. Our collection embodies classic lines and shapes with fashion flair in details. We also pride ourselves in the thought and care we put into the production of each garment. Each piece is made in the U.S. with much care under ethical working conditions.

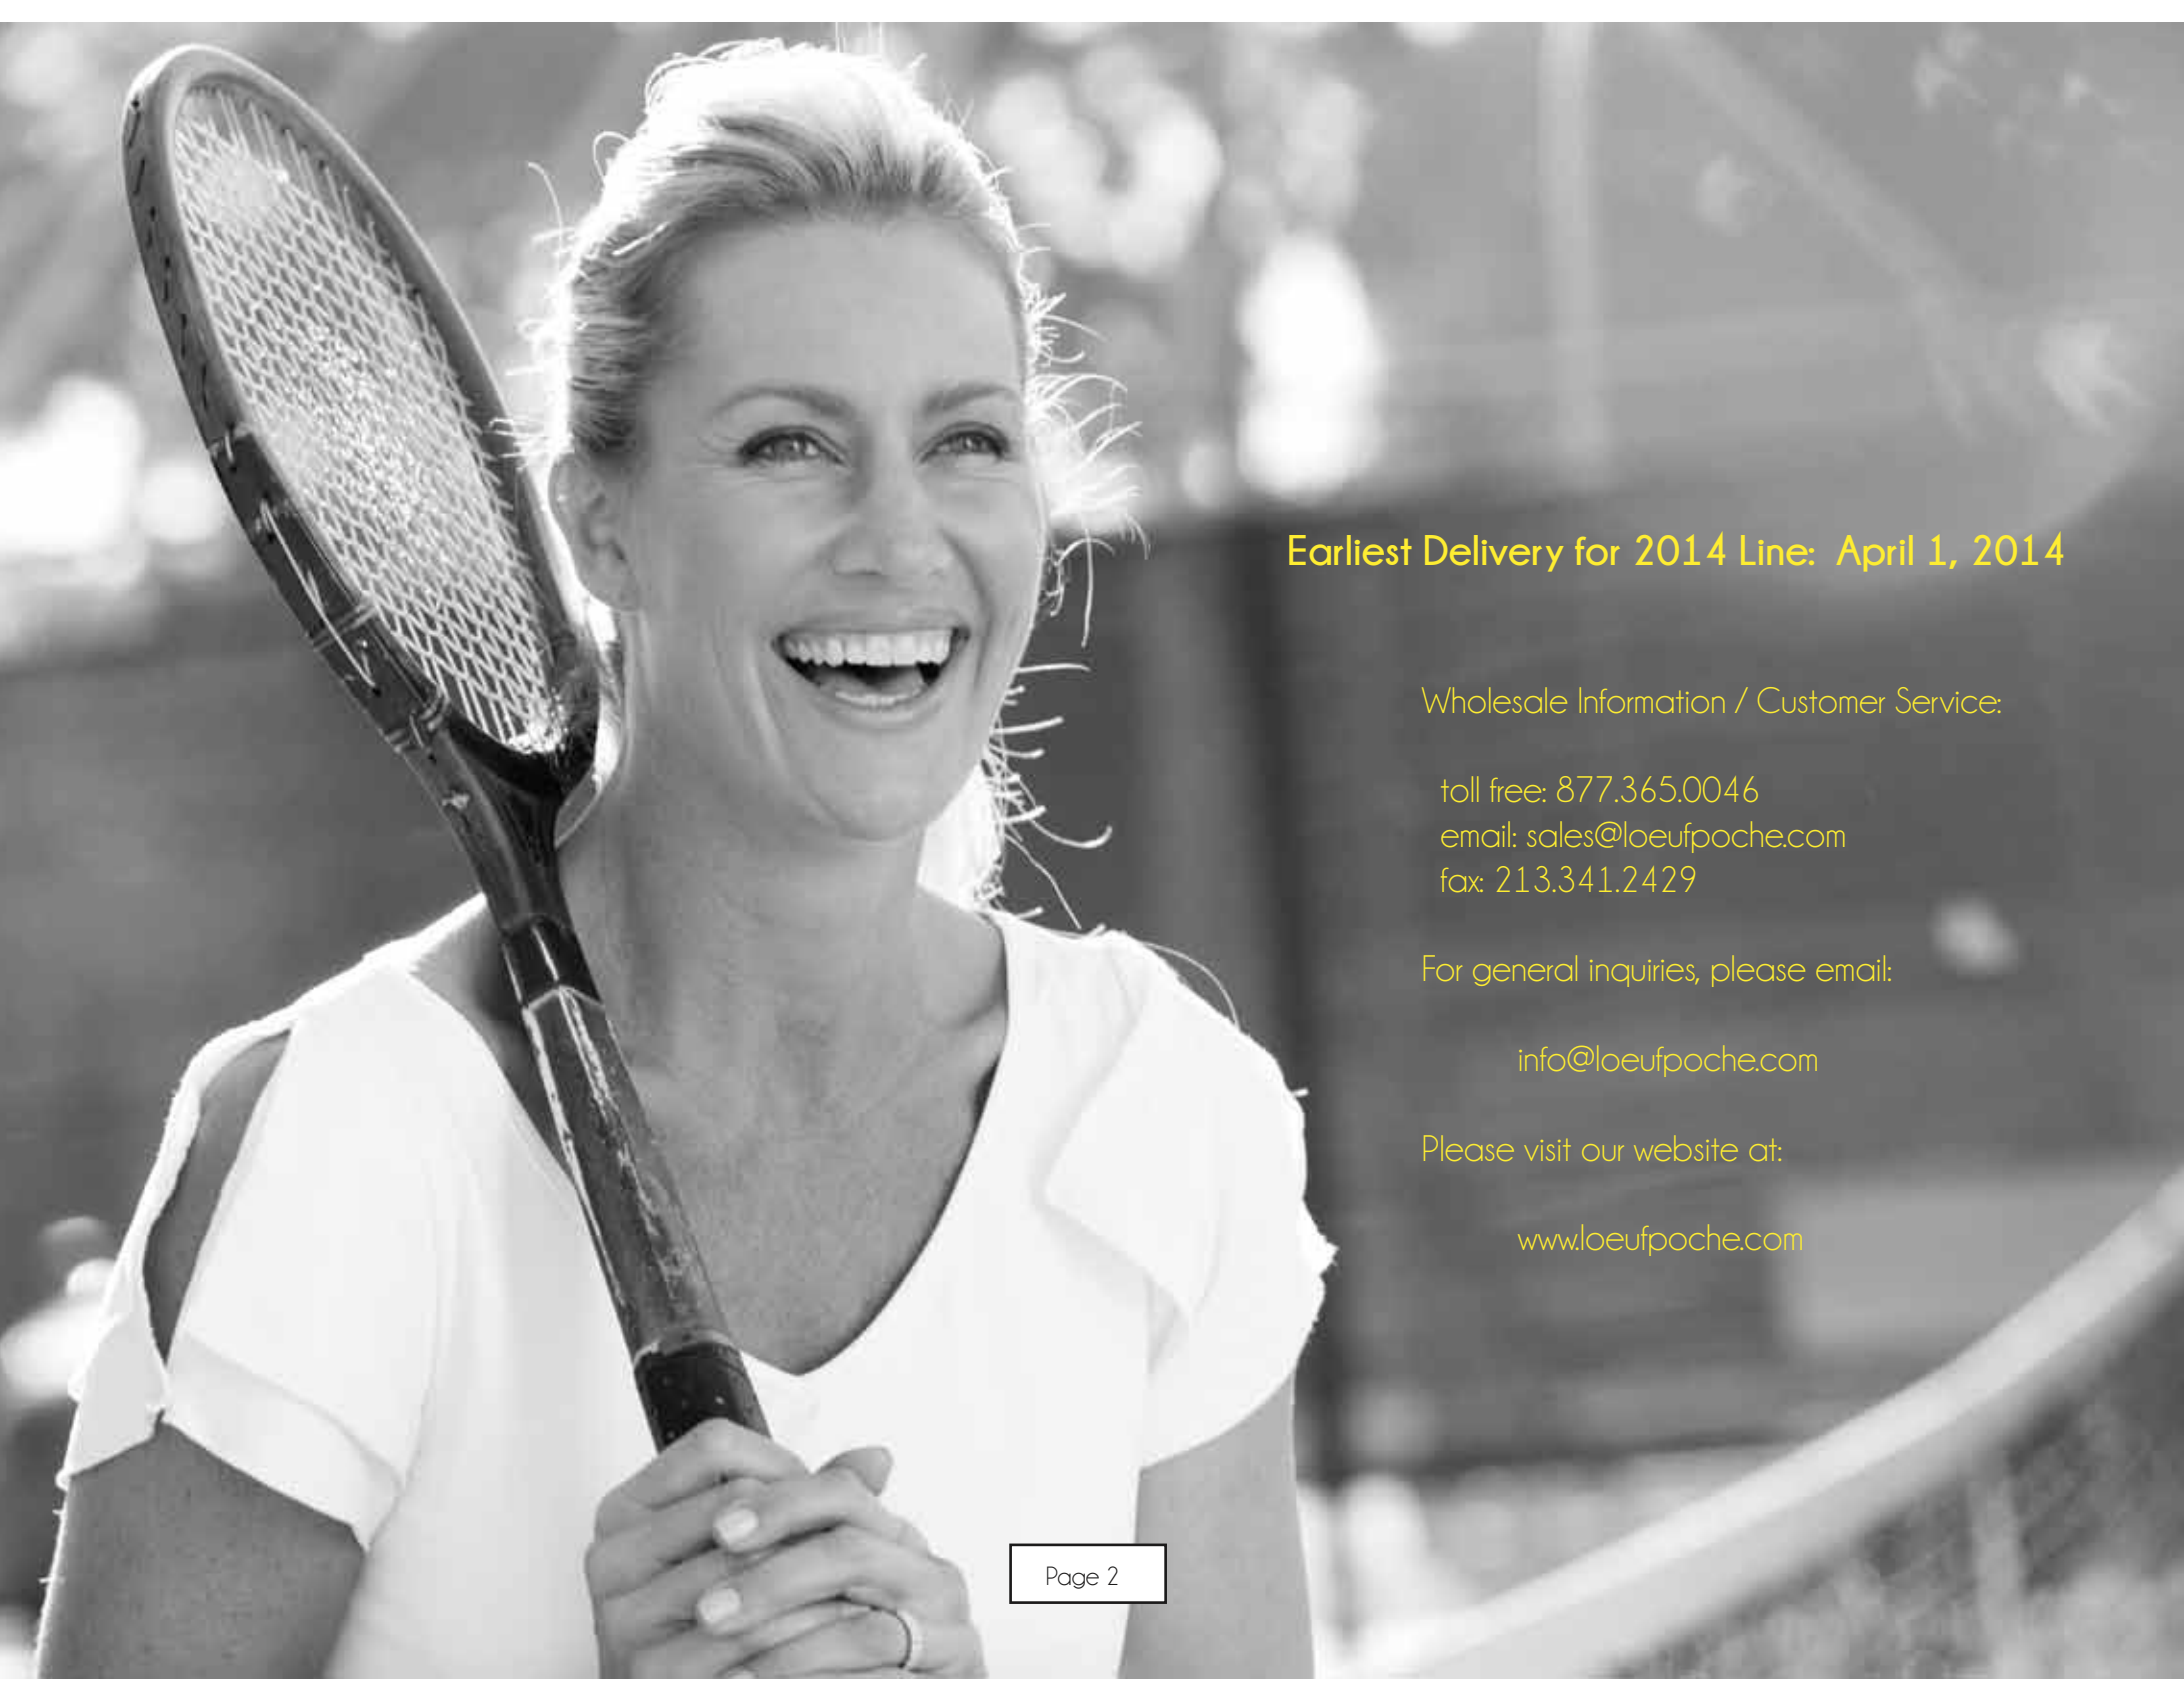

What does L'Oeuf Poché mean?

L'Oeuf Poché means The Poached Egg in French. L'Oeuf is said to be the origin of the term "love" in tennis because eggs resemble a zero. Poach is also a tennis term, which is used to describe a play in doubles where the player at the net crosses the court to volley a shot intended for his/her partner. High risk, high reward!

2014 Collection:

The 2014 Collection is a combination of classic lines and feminine details. The Panel Tank & Skort has a clean and simple shape that is flattering on every woman. The Flutter Skort has a unique ruffle hemline that takes on a fun & flirty shape while you move about on the court. The Flutter Skort can be paired with the Split Sleeves Flutter Shirt or the Ruffle Polo Shirt which offers a variety of looks. We also added a new trim option for one of our best selling set, The Scalloped Tank & Skort.

A black and white photograph of a woman with blonde hair tied back, smiling broadly while holding a tennis racket over her shoulder. She is wearing a white short-sleeved shirt. The background is a blurred outdoor setting, likely a tennis court.
